

Rhode Island School Counselor Association

COUNSELOR OF THE YEAR AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Nominees for “Counselor of the Year” must have been responsible for:

- innovations in comprehensive school counseling programs,
- providing leadership in the further development of existing guidance and school counseling programs
- performing an outstanding service to the school, community or school counseling field
- evidence of advocacy, collaboration, and/or systemic change

The individual must be a current member of RISCA.

The nominee below is a candidate for School Counselor of the Year:

NOMINEE:

Name:

Position:

School:

Years as a Counselor:

NOMINATOR:

Name:

Position:

School:

Telephone: (w)
(h)

Address:

e-mail:

DOCUMENTATION:

Attach a one page summary giving evidence the person being nominated has achieved the above criteria, with at least three letters of recommendation from administration, counselors, teachers, parents, students, or other appropriate individuals.

PLEASE RETURN BY June 11, 2010 to :

RISCA Counselor of the Year Award Committee, School of Professional Studies, c/o Belinda Wilkerson, One Cunningham Square, Providence College, Providence, RI 02918-0001. If you have any questions, feel free to call the RISCA Office at 865-2789. Thank you!

RISCA's Awards Committee selects the award recipients. The committee reserves the right not to present an award when, in the committee's opinion, there is insufficient evidence of outstanding contribution.